Show your style on the road.....

Although much of our day is spent in the office, a good amount of time revolves around being in our car going from one appointment to the next. We take pride in our style and this is reflected in our driving manners and preferred car models.

D-Dominance The D style will drive fast and only pay attention to their situation. No blinker for lane changes and forget about being able to merge in front of a D. their prestige and power on the road is shown by driving 'high-end' cars. Car Models: Lexus, Mercedes	i-influence The "i" is in no hurry on the road and may often run late as they enjoy the sights and other people while driving. The radio is blasting their favorite tune as they sing along. Need to merge? Find an "I", they will let you and several others right in! Car Models: Convertible, Jaguar
C-Conscientious The C style is very polite on the road. They have their route mapped out ahead of time and have a GPS to back up their plan. Car choice is a top priority as Consumer Reports and Kelly's Blue Book are referenced often when making their decision. Best buy for their money. Car Models: Hybrid, Sedan	S-Steadiness The S will follow the rules of the road, including speed limit because they have left early to get to their destination. The S is most likely to car pool in order to save gas and help others. A good family car that is dependable and easy to drive will please an S. Car Models: Minivan, Suburban
